The price of the SUV will be determined by the market, Alfa Romeo says. The QV will be the first model manufactured under the Qevo (Quality EVision) strategy, which is part of the overall company-wide overhaul plan known as Qevo 2020. "The first model will be the QV. We plan to launch this model in the market in the next few months. As part of this strategy, we want to bring out different models for the same application," Alfa Romeo India head Walter de Silva told TOI. Since the QV was launched in India in 2017, the model has only seen limited production volumes. A part of the strategy revamps Alfa Romeo's manufacturing
